Luke 8:26-29

Then they arrived at the region of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. <sup>27</sup>As he stepped out on shore, a man from the city who had demons met him. For a long time he had not worn any clothes, and he did not live in a house but in the tombs. <sup>28</sup>When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell down before him, shouting, "What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me," <sup>29</sup>for Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many times it had seized him; he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the wilds.)

Glory Glory Hallelujah

Glory, glory, Hallelujah! Since I laid my burden down.

Glory, glory, Hallelujah! Since I laid my burden down.

No more sickness, no more sorrow,
since I laid my burden down.

No more sickness, no more sorrow,
since I laid my burden down.

In my trials, I have comfort,
since I laid my burden down.

In my trials, I have comfort,
since I laid my burden down.

Feel like shouting "Hallelujah!"
since I laid my burden down.

Feel like shouting "Hallelujah!"
since I laid my burden down.

Glory, glory, Hallelujah! Since I laid my burden down.

Glory, glory, Hallelujah! Since I laid my burden down.
